Banns of Matrimony

II Trey Hizer and Megdalena Walz on August 14, at St. Mary Help of Christians Church, Glen Haven

St. John's Summer Fest on Aug. 14
St. John's Summer Fest. will take place in two weeks on Saturday, August 14 starting at 4:30 p.m. with Mass. The rest of the August 14&15 weekend schedule will NOT change.

This is a great opportunity to share the evening with friends and family at this wonderful parish event. Following Mass, there will be a delicious Broasted Chicken & Ham Dinner, raffle, live auction, and fun for all ages.

We hope many from our parish communities plus family and friends will be able to enjoy the delicious dinner and all of the events.

Sharing Our Blessings

Thank you to everyone who supports our parishes with their time, talents and financial gifts! May God continue to bless you for your generosity and kindness.

Please pray for the financial health of our parishes and that all members will generously share the many blessings that God has given them with our parishes.

What we do in life echoes in eternity.

Eighteenth Sunday

Each Sunday, we receive the Lord –Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity- in the Bread of Life, the Eucharist. He satisfies our hunger whether it is material or spiritual.

When we receive the Lord in the Eucharist, he brings fullness, mission, God's grace, and the promise of eternal life into our imperfect human lives. He enables us to "put away the old self" and "put on the new self."

Welcome to Msgr. Duane Moellenberndt

I am grateful to Msgr. Duane Moellenberndt for helping with the Masses in our parishes this weekend so I am able to host a family reunion at my farm in Middleton.

Msgr. Duane and I have been friends for many years. We were together in school at Holy Name College, but then we went to different major seminaries. After our ordinations, we worked together as Associate Pastors at St. Bernard Parish on the East side of Madison for two years.

Msgr. Duane was the pastor of the large, historic parish in Sun Prairie, Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary for many years before he retired last year. He also had one of the largest Catholic Schools in the Diocese of Madison. Msgr. Duane was Fr. Bart Timmerman's first pastor when he was newly ordained and now in his retirement he is able to visit Fr. Bart's first parishes. It is a great completion of a full circle. I am so grateful he was able to come out here.

Vacation Time

I will be away from the parishes from August 1-6. If there is a pastoral emergency, please call St. Mary's Parish office at 994-2526.

Reflection

"Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus will I test them, to see whether they follow my instructions or not." EXODUS 16:4

When the Israelites gathered more than their daily portion of manna, the surplus became wormy and rotten. In the same way today, self-reliance, pride and ego leads to hoarding and excessive surplus of goods and money. Living a stewardship lifestyle helps us discern our "wants" from our "needs". Living a grateful and generous lifestyle reminds us that God will provide all that we need and that we have plenty to share.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

Are you thinking about becoming Catholic? Do you know someone who is interested in the Catholic faith? I would like to invite you or the person that you know to participate in our RCIA program. If you are already Catholic and would like to be Confirmed, the RCIA program is also for you. Please contact me at 994-2526 or Marcia Hampton at 994-2149 for more information about the RCIA program.

St. Charles Parish Council

Two years ago, the St. Charles Parish Council Policy was amended. It was decided that St. Charles should have a 9-member council. During this time, the redecoration project was under way and the current council members wanted to see the project completed.

Then the pandemic hit, so again the membership amendment was postponed. Now as we are turning the corner on both of these matters, we are looking for nominations of active and dedicated St. Charles Parishioners to fill three positions on the council. You may nominate yourself or another parishioner, with their consent. The new members will start in June and hold a 3-year term. If more than three nominations are received, an election will be held. Please contact the St. Charles Parish office at 725-5595, for more information or for nominations.

St. Mary's Thank You's

Thank you very much to Catholic Financial Life for the matching funds for our Pork Chop Dinner!! A special THANK YOU to Tim and Tracy Walz's milk company for the generous donation for the ice cream used in our root beer floats after Mass.

FEAST OF FAITH -The Preface: Thanksgiving

The preface of the Mass has been called "a poem, the cry of joy and recognition, the song of the world discovering its salvation . . . the certitude of faith making hope spring forth" (Philippe Béguerie, quoted in The Mass, Lucien Deiss, The Liturgical Press, Collegeville, MN, 1992, p. 70). The preface takes up the last words of the dialogue, and expresses briefly and simply why we are grateful, why it is right and just to give thanks and praise to God. On feast days, the preface sings of the specific mystery or saint we celebrate; in Ordinary Time, the Sunday and weekday prefaces express our gratitude for God's gift of the Son, Jesus Christ, in whom we have redemption and newness of life. The prefaces offer a succinct account of what God has done for us in Christ; they express the mystery of faith, always relating it to us, to our lives. "By his birth we are reborn," we hear in Preface IV for Sundays in Ordinary Time. "By his suffering we are freed from sin. By his rising from the dead we rise to everlasting life." Yes, we have cause to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrate Life

In his June 2009 encyclical Caritas in Veritate, Pope Benedict XVI reminds the world that poverty will not be eradicated unless we rediscover and protect the sanctity of life at every level. Dismissing the unborn as less than human and allowing abortion impedes the work of social justice. He points out with urgency, "While the poor of the world continue knocking on the doors of the rich, the world of affluence runs the risk of no longer hearing those knocks, on account of a conscience that can no longer distinguish what is human" (n. 75).

SAINT JOHN MARY VIANNEY (1786-1859)

A busy pastor jokingly suggests the secret of Saint John Vianney's holiness: "He died seventeen years before telephones!" Call they didn't, but visit they did, keeping Vianney eighteen hours a day in the confessional. Stories abound of reading hearts and exorcisms, but Vianney's first miracle was getting ordained. Difficulty with studies delayed him, prompting the rector's apology to the bishop, "So far to ordain just one, especially this one!" The bishop, who could not know he was ordaining the future patron saint of parish priests, replied, "No burden to ordain one good priest!"

In Ars, only an elderly handful attended Mass, "praying," one told Vianney, "for a priest with brains." But he stayed forty-two years, fulfilling the promise he made the day he arrived. In a sculpture just outside the village Vianney points skyward: "Show me the way to Ars," he tells a boy, "and I'll show you the way to heaven." To someone who feared there was no heaven beyond the grave, Vianney smiled, "My child, it would have been heaven enough to have lived as Jesus' disciple on earth." —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S.
