Sharing Our Blessings

Thank you to everyone who supports our parishes with their time, talents and financial gifts! May God continue to bless you for your generosity and kindness.

Please pray for the financial health of our parishes and that all members will generously share the many blessings that God has given them with our parishes.

What we do in life echoes in eternity.

Twenty-fourth Sunday

Often we hear what we want to hear, not what we need to hear. It's only human; even Saint Peter showed this tendency. When Jesus told his disciples that he would suffer and be killed, Peter immediately drew him aside and criticized him. Not only did Jesus rebuke him, he told the crowd that everyone who follows him must suffer as well, must willingly take up their crosses. Let us pry for courage to take up our crosses, comforted with knowledge that God always accompanies us in our struggles.

A Celebration of Church and Community

I have been looking forward to our large parish festivals again this year after a year when so much was canceled. Each one of us hopes to have joyful days as well as times of struggle and suffering. This Sunday's Gospel recounts Christ predicting his own suffering and death upon the cross. During the last two weeks from Mark's Gospel we heard how Christ humbled his enemies and healed the deaf man. But today Christ gives his disciples a dire warning of how he will suffer and how they will share in that same struggle.

If we are to be faithful to Christ we need to celebrate the good things God has given us as we also pray for and share in the suffering of our community members. Parish festivals raise funds for our parish, but they also bring us together for a common enterprise. We work hard, but our most important goal is to nurture our parish community as we work together and pray together. We need each other in the Church to faithfully follow Christ.

Welcome to St. Mary's Fall Festival

We are very happy to welcome one and all to St. Mary's Parish Festival this weekend. Especially we welcome St. Mary's School alumni, friends and family members who have traveled to be with us this weekend. We come together as a parish family to share faith and friendship. We celebrate all that our parish and school mean to us, our families, and our community. We thank God for all who sacrifice to make our parish family such a wonderful and spirit-filled community. Thank you to St. Mary's Parish Council and the Fall Festival Committee members. Thank you to all who volunteer, donate, and/or participate to ensure the success of our fundraising events. May God bless our families.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

Are you thinking about becoming Catholic? Do you know someone who is interested in the Catholic faith? I would like to invite you or the person that you know to participate in our RCIA program. If you are already Catholic and would like to be Confirmed, the RCIA program is also for you. Please contact Fr. John or Marcia Hampton at 994-2149 for more information about the RCIA program.

SAINT JOHN CHRYSOSTOM (c. 344-407)

September 13

"Speaking truth to power" may have become just another cliché, but doing precisely that cost John "the Golden Mouth" (Chrysostom) his diocese and, after exile and a forced march, his health and life. "Renowned for eloquence, heroic in suffering" (Sacramentary), John's scriptural insights still comfort and challenge. Mystical theologian, he bids Eastern Christians, whose principal Divine Liturgy bears his name, to lift up their hearts to "God ineffable, beyond comprehension, invisible, beyond understanding, existing forever, always the same." Model pastor, he warns Roman Catholics in the Liturgy of the Hours not to neglect God-in-the-flesh: "Would you honor Christ's body? Do not scorn his nakedness, honoring him here in church with silken robes, while neglecting him cold and naked outside. What use to burden Christ's altar with golden chalices, while Christ himself starves to death? What use dressing the altar with gold-woven cloths, while denying the shivering Christ the clothes he needs? Do not adorn the church while ignoring your needy brother: he is the most precious temple of all!" (Saturday, Twenty-first Week in Ordinary Time). -Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. FEAST OF FAITH

Offering and Intercessions

In this holy moment—with the consecrated bread and wine, the Body and Blood of Christ, upon the altar—we pray for a share in the fruits of Christ's sacrifice. We offer to God what God has given to us, and we intercede for the Church and the world. We pray for the pope and for all the bishops, and we mention the bishop of our local church by name. We pray for the clergy and for all the people of God. We pray in a special way for those who have died. And we pray for ourselves, that one day, with Mary and all the saints, we may come to that place where Jesus already reigns. These prayers of intercession, like the General Intercessions earlier in the Mass, broaden our focus and remind us that the Eucharist is offered not just for those gathered, but for the salvation of the entire world. The Eucharistic Prayer leads us from an intense focus on Christ, present in the consecrated host in the hands of the priest, to a loving sweep of prayer that embraces the world.

Celebrate Life

I had 4 abortions. The first when I was 18 after the first time I had sex. My parents didn't know. The boy offered to pay for the abortion. Basically, my friend took me by the hand and led me to the clinic where there was no discussion about alternatives, just an appointment made. The second one, I took myself. The third one – my same boy-friend was involved. The fourth one I did alone. When I gave birth to my first baby, the reality of what I had done hit me like a ton of bricks. My husband and I have been profoundly affected. Our sex life is nil – we have unresolved guilt and anger. There's no telling what the impact has been on me, I am just opening the door to it all. But I know one thing – if it hadn't been legal, I would not have been so promiscuous. No way! –Mary, CA -Priests for Life website

Life Begins at Conception!

At 18 days a baby's heart begins to beat and by the 43rd day after conception a baby's brain is coordinating movements. All of a baby's organs are functioning at 8 weeks and a baby can smile, suck his/her thumb and make a fist by 12 weeks.

Reflection

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." MARK 8:34

Living a stewardship lifestyle means not only being responsible for my own life, but for the lives of others as well. We realize that our gifts are not intended for ourselves, rather they are meant to be shared with others. "Taking up my cross" means doing things when someone else needs me and not when it's convenient for me.

Cassville AA and Al-Anon Meetings

The AA meetings are every Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. at the Municipal Building in Cassville.
